

MHSA ATHLETES' HALL OF FAME
Jeanne Marie McNulty (1985)
Whitehall High School
Inducted 1993

McNulty was an All-Conference basketball player all four years for Whitehall High School. She also earned All-State honors three times as well as being named to both the USA Today and Converse High School All-American teams. She also lettered four years in track, and was the state 100-meter hurdle champion and the state high jump champion both twice. At the University of Montana, McNulty played four years and was a two-year starter for the Lady Griz. She was the Big Sky Conference MVP as a senior, a District VII Kodak All-American and GTE District VII All-Academic selection. She also competed in track and was the Big Sky Conference javelin champion. In 1990, McNulty won the Little Sullivan Award as Montana's top female amateur athlete.

NorthWestern
Energy

Wendy's