Larry Questad (1961)

Park High School

Inducted 1995

Questad competed in football, basketball and track while at Park High School. He would win the 100 and 220 yard dashes three years in a row. As a senior, he added a victory in the 180-yard low hurdles, and set records in both dashes. Questad won major meets all over Europe including Moscow and the Helsinki games. At Stanford University, Questad was an All-American in 1963, 1965 and 1968. He realized a dream when he qualified and competed in the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City.
