

MHSA ATHLETES' HALL OF FAME

Shane Collins (1987)

Bozeman High School

Inducted 1999

Collins won state titles in the shot put from 1985-87 setting state records in 1986 and 1987 for Bozeman High. He also won the AA discus title in 1987. He won the Meet of Champions shot put title his junior and senior years, establishing the meet record. In basketball, Collins was named 1st Team All-State for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 seasons. He was all state in football his junior and senior years. Collins attended Arizona State University where he was named to the All-PAC 10 football team three times. He was a four-time NCAA All-American in Track and Field, winning the 1990 NCAA shot put championship and finishing runner-up in the event three times. Collins was selected in the second round of the National Football League draft. He started at defensive end for Washington for three seasons.

NorthWestern
Energy

Wendy's